Community Development

Slater Abatement - Slater has been served, more than 20 days have elapsed, and Slater has not answered. Slater contacted the city attorney which the attorney has construed as an "appearance". The next action will be to move for default, giving notice by mail.

City Administrator
Staff Report
February 8, 2007

Comprehensive Plan Amendments – Reid Shockey delivered the first three chapters (land use, capital facilities, and natural resources) for review by the Planning Board at their meeting on Tuesday, February 6. Copies have been sent by e-mail to parties of record and they are available on the City's web site. The City Council will have their first update of the feedback to date on February 22, 2007.

Clerks Office/Finance

Staff have been working together to review Interim Finance Director, Gordon Hey's five year financial plan. There are a number of questions about the assumptions underlying the revenue and expenditure forecasts that need clarification from Mr. Hey. Staff expects the five-year financial plan to be available for Council review and discussion at the February 22, meeting.
