RE: Presentation by Snohomish Regional Drug Task Force
Commander Patric Slack

Commander Patric Slack will be giving you a presentation about the Snohomish Regional Drug Task Force at the June 11th meeting and will be available to answer your questions at the end of his presentation. I would like to give you some background information about Commander Slack before the meeting so you have a better idea about his experience and him.

Pat was raised in East Snohomish County, near the City of Snohomish. He served in the U.S. Army for two years, deployed to Republic of Viet Nam for half of that time. After leaving the military, Slack joined the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office in December 1969, where he served until February 1995.

While with the Sheriff's Office, Commander Slack was assigned to patrol and investigations, working as an auto theft and Major Crimes Detective.

Commander Slack was appointed as the Deputy Chief of Operations for the Everett Police Department when he retired from the Sheriff's Office and served in that capacity until he again retired in June 2000, to be named as the Commander of the Snohomish Regional Drug Task Force.
