Notable Events of November 2010

-  We have received reports of an increase in methamphetamine labs in the Skykomish Valley. Deputies did recover one lab from the trunk of a car parked at Big Eddy, east of Gold Bar and have been searching areas, especially east of Gold Bar, for more labs.
-  We have been dealing with a problem mobile home in the park at 403 West Stevens for several months. The problem tenant was evicted by the SCSO Civil Unit earlier this month.
-  In September 2010 Deputy Hansmann received a report of the theft of a ring. According to the complainant, she had mistakenly sent a ring to her sister, at her sister's former home in Sultan and UPS had delivered the ring to that home. Hansmann contacted the resident at the home and was told the ring had never been delivered. Through November, Hansmann continued to use databases and found the ring had been pawned by the same person he spoke with at the house in Sultan. The female suspect has been charged with felony theft and traffic of stolen property and the ring owners have their ring back.
-  Deputy Vimpany was called to a theft at a local latte stand and was told that a male had reached in through the open drive thru window to steal a cellular phone that was sitting on the counter. Vimpany was able to determine who the suspect was, based on the victim's description and began his search for him. Later the same night Deputy Robinson located the suspect, who still had the stolen phone and arrested him for burglary. The suspect has been arrested for misdemeanor theft several times in the past and was upset that he was being charged with a felony this time.
-  Sultan and East County Block Watchers attended a combined meeting at the Community Center to learn about personal protection and security devices.
-  Snohomish County Department of Emergency Management sponsored another Civilian Emergency Response Training (CERT) class, which three people graduated from.
-  Sultan staff and deputies attended eight hours of Sultan camera surveillance training to learn how to operate and download images from the system.
-  Deputies were given information about a house in the 400 block of West Stevens that had stolen property and a marijuana growing operation in it. Deputies Horton and Hansmann contacted the person at the house and obtained consent to search. Inside they found at least six large flat screen televisions, several laptop computers and much more property they believe to be stolen. They also found a small marijuana growing operation. All the evidence was seized and staff has been trying to identify the owners of the stolen property. Charges will be forwarded for manufacturing of controlled substance and traffic stolen property.
-  Deputies have continued their attention on Skyview Drive and served another search warrant on a resident there. Some drug paraphernalia was located during the search and a car was impounded for service of another warrant.

Our call load has remained low through November with a continued reduction in burglaries, vandalisms and thefts.
